
Subject: English Language Arts

Level: Standard Five

Strand: Writing

Topic: Multiple Meaning Words

Key Points: Many words have more than one meaning.

INSTRUCTIONS: Fill in each blank below with an appropriate word from the box. Note that each word must be used twice. Read the passage aloud to someone. Read with expression.

cloud conduct board chair sound present

Marlo had to _____ (1) his first meeting last Monday. He was the new president of the Student Council and felt honoured to sit in the special _____ (2). He began by giving a _____ (3) to Jed, the outgoing president. The members who were _____ (4) burst into a _____ (5) of rejoicing. After it was quiet again, he thanked his colleagues for their _____ (6) decision that resulted in his victory. A _____ (7) drew Marlo’s attention while he was looking through the window at the sky. He then smiled and said, “Never allow the opinions of others to _____ (8) your judgment.” Marlo invited Jed to _____ (9) the activities of the next meeting and asked him to speak on the importance of good _____ (10) at school. In the end, Marlo promised not only to appoint the new _____ (11) shortly but also to allow _____ (12) games to continue as a post-meeting social activity.

ANSWER KEY

INSTRUCTIONS: Fill in each blank below with an appropriate word from the box. Note that each word must be used twice.

1. chair
2. chair
3. present
4. present
5. sound
6. sound
7. cloud
8. cloud
9. conduct
10. conduct
11. board
12. board